

Exploring Alternative Foods for World Hunger: The Potential of Edible Insects

2-Day International Conference SIFAT Training Campus Lineville, Alabama USA April 23 - 24, 2010

International presenters include:

- Julieta Ramos-Elorduy, PhD, National University of Mexico
- M'Vita Bambi, PhD of Kinshasa, Democratic Republic of the Congo
- Feng Ying, PhD and Xiaoming Chen, PhD, The Research Institute of Resource Insects, Kunming, China

Activities include:

- Trapping and identifying local forest insects
- Preparing other insects for consumption
- Making gourmet recipes for Saturday night dinner
- Bug Banquet Celebration (non-bug food available)

Registration: $69.00

Low-cost food and lodging available on campus for additional cost
(contact: brysonk@sifat.org)

Conference co-sponsored by:

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

World Food Programme
Universities Fighting World Hunger

SIFAT
Southern Institute for Appropriate Technology/
Servants in Faith and Technology
2944 CR 113
Lineville, Alabama 36266 USA
Telephone: 256.396.2015
www.sifat.org